

EMDR Institute Basic Training Part 1 Information & Registration Form By EMDR Foundations with Dr Tal Moore

The EMDR Institute Basic Training (Part 1 and Part 2) is designed for eligible mental health practitioners who treat adults and children in a clinical setting (see eligibility criteria attached).

The training schedule

The training schedule is 8:30am-5pm on all three consecutive days of the training. Each day consists of lectures, videos, demonstrations and practicums.

Please note that the training starts promptly at 8:30am each day and continues until 5pm each day. If you must leave early for any reason, please let your trainer know in advance. You will need to make up the time lost with either a trainer or a facilitator to meet the requirements of the EMDR Institute Training in order to receive your Certificate of Attendance. This may incur an additional cost, so please endeavour to ensure you can attend un-interrupted for the duration of the training.

Additional requirements

Case Consultation with an accredited EMDR-Institute Facilitator is an integral part of the training. Before attending Part 2 of the Basic Training, participants are required :

- To undertake a minimum of 5 hours of case consultation with an EMDR Institute facilitator (either in group or individual format), and
- To log at least 30-35 hours of EMDR clinical sessions with their clients.

After attending Part 2 of the Basic EMDR training, another 5 hours of case consultation and 30-35 hours of EMDR clinical sessions are required before the Certificate of Completion for the EMDR- Institute Basic Training can be issued.

For further information, please also see the EMDR New Zealand Association at emdr.org.nz

Costs

The cost is $ 1,050 incl. GST for the 3 day training (Part 1). This cost includes your training manual and other educational materials and resources.

Please note, the case consultation is paid for separately.

To apply to register for the training

Please email your completed registration form to Drtalhmoore@gmail.com.

If you have been accepted to the training (please find the eligibility criteria attached), a confirmation email with further details and an invoice will be sent out to your email address.
